CLEBRATED NEW YEAR

The Assembly Dancing club held New Year's dance in Bartlett hall that has never been excelled in To-nopah. Too much credit cannot be given the gentlemen in charge, under the management of Mr. Lands borough and Mr. Sherwin. The hall was elaborately decorated with fes cons of pepper berries and great nutches of oranges. A bower of Thristmas trees was made for the cousic. The feature of the evening came at 12 o'clock, when every on was furnished with some kind of noisemaker, the lights were turned out and a big 1914 blazed out of the green on the wall. The noise was deafening and the next fifteen min utes was spent in handshakes and cordial "Happy New Years!" The uests danced until 1:30 and, judging by the tired out happy faces that left the hall, every one felt that they had fittingly ushered 1914 into exist
